COMMUNITY

THANK YOU

The Volunteer Bushfire Brigades of Doodenanning, North Quairading, Quairading Central, South Caroling and Wamenusking would like to acknowledge and to say thank you to Lyle and Tara of Quairading Tyre & Battery for their assistance in distributing the Emergency Services Fuel Card Scheme. Over the past 3 years our 5 bushfire brigades have received $25,000 of fuel for our volunteers from the State Government Royalties for Regions program.

VERY GRATEFUL THANKS

To the Years 7/8 and 9/10 and to Miss Bec Wilson for your tremendous help in restoring the directional signs in the Nature Reserve.
Nature Reserve Committee.

THANKS & WELCOME!

We would like to let the community know that Jacqui Sandercock finished up last week in her job as Quairading's town Postie after 20 years' service. She has been an invaluable supportive member of our Q Book Post family since we took over the business as well as a great friend and will truly be missed. We wish her all the very best for what the next chapter holds! Thank you for all that you have done, Jacqui. We welcome

Mick Grage as Quairading's new town Postie! Many thanks, Luke, Kelly, Bodhi + Gypsy

SPORT

LADIES GOLF RESULTS

Wednesday 27 June saw 8 ladies brave the wet weather to play for the Monthly Mug. Lisa Caporn came away with the prize on -3, Kelli Brown runner up on -4, novelty winners were Barb & Jan. Well done ladies! Once again the rain gods were good for the farmers but not so good for golf and 9 ladies took on the challenge for the Presidents trophy on Wednesday 4 July. Congratulations to Barb Bond for being the best with 80 nett and also to runner up, Shauna Stone with 83 nett. Barb & Jan once again took the novelty prizes home. Let's hope next Wednesday sees a little fine weather between 12-5pm for us to play our last Championship qualifying round and do the final prep for Charity day on Friday 13 July.
