WA Golf Foundation

Designed to assist the development of golf within Western Australia. Grants are anticipated to be under $5000 and can target junior development, adult development and specified groups. Previously there has been little emphasis placed on development programmes for adults. However with the challenges that golf faces in competing with other sports, an increasing focus of the Foundation will be to provide funding for programmes that target adults who have not played the game before.

Applications close 1 April 2019.
